

South Carolina Northeast District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler

Originally from Long Branch, New Jersey, John M. Serviss enjoyed a distinguished career in law enforcement before retiring in 2011. Following his retirement, he relocated to the Myrtle Beach area, where he began a new chapter of service and leadership by joining the Murrells Inlet Elks Lodge.

Since becoming an Elk, John has exemplified commitment, leadership, and fellowship. He has served multiple terms as Exalted Ruler (ER) and held various key positions including House Committee Chairman, Chairman of the Board, Inner Guard, Leading Knight, and Trustee. His tireless dedication extends beyond the Lodge, with significant contributions at the State level as State Tiler, Esquire, Northeast Director of the Charitable Trust Fund, and Vice President of the PER Association.

In recognition of his extraordinary service in Scouting and the B.P.O.E, John was honored with the 2025 Grand Lodge Marvin M. Lewis Award.

Today, as the South Carolina Northeast District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler, John continues to lead with passion and purpose. He is committed to inspiring fellow Elks to channel their talents, strengthen their Lodges, and carry forward the noble spirit of Elksdom.
